

SCHOOL LIFE

OUR NEW FRIENDS

Dear readers,

We are happy to share with you our moods and emotions that experienced in the past few days. Students and teachers from Great Britain, Turkey and Spain visited us. We work together on Comenius project "Listen to the voice of nature. We met them solemnly with bread, honey and geranium- an old Bulgarian tradition- as dear friends. The guests were addressed by us and representatives of the Inspectorate and Department "Education", Plovdiv. The emotional charge our children conveyed to teachers, staff and parents and it seemed to inspire all for the upcoming concert.

LANGUAGE OF FRIENDSHIP

The concert, which students and teachers prepared with love was for our new friends from the UK ,Turkey and Spain. Greeting from "Aleko Konstantinov " school was referred to them in Bulgarian, English, Turkish and Spanish.

Our messages were dressed in music theatre and dances, because art is international language of friendship. We enjoyed magical moments and were loaded with humor, smiles and optimism.

PROJECT "Creative Sparks"

What do you imagine when you hear the word "Art"? Perhaps, a good book or movie picture or song, theatrical or dance? And perhaps associate this word with obtain colour, tune name or artist emotion experienced at the touch of art?

Literature, music and fine - it attended inextricably our school life, but how they are important to us, how are understandable and necessary, and how we are touched by their messages?

It is the art and the ability to be creative in different fields of the art in the school year 2013/2014 that made "Aleko Konstantinov" school, along with other seven schools from the Plovdiv district partners of the " Fire of Orpheus", the project "Youth Academy" Creative Sparks "

The "Fire of Orpheus" includes artists musicians, composers, poets, actors, dancers – artists in different areas of their objectives to support young talents through their development, refinement and performance.

The Foundation is the main initiator and organizer of Summer Art Academy "The Fire of Orpheus "and Festive days of arts- "Spring in the old town," National literary contest "The Fire of Orpheus" on charity events and concerts, international projects, which provides opportunity to meet creative people in different countries. President of the Foundation is Eugenia Tagareva, Honorary President - Kaludi Kaludov, Artistic Director – Georg Baich, chief coordinator - Stella Miteva – Dinkova.

Project "Youth Academy" Creative Sparks "is financed by the Programme support of NGOs Bulgaria at the Financial Mechanism of European Economic Area 2009-2014.

Our team of experts has set a goal to increase the role of art education and upbringing young people through the creation and implementation of formats for engaging citizens in the workings of NGOs and building partnerships / networks/. With the help of educators, artists, teachers in higher education in the arts, journalists involved in the project will be set up workshops and creative activities are conducted by scientists of the schools - partners by giving them opportunities to perform through creating and presentation to different audiences in multi art performances. The project will culminate in a small festival with representatives of all schools - participants. Will be created online network, to discuss the ideas of the project and to become an arena for expression and support of people who would like voluntary to continue on their own.

Since the team formed for the project, has set a goal to make a point the role of art for the education of Bulgarian children as active European citizens , thanks in advance students , parents and teachers of primary School " Aleko Konstantinov" who have opportunity to share their opinion on theme by filling a survey .

Club " Media School " Aleko "

SCHOOL PARLAMENT

Dear readers, this year students from the School Parliament will continue to share ideas and initiatives on the pages of our school newspaper . We are planning to organize interesting events that can attract the student community and inspire students, teachers and parents for more creativity, innovation and enthusiasm.

Your school parliament for the school 2013/2014 year.

RULES of the students` parliament

1. School Parliament is a kind of individual form of self-government students
2. School Parliament works in accordance with the Education Act , normative acts of Ministry of Education , school rules , school plans and their work plan.
- 3 . School Parliament carries out its activities in schools with the support of the pedagogical advisor and class teachers .
- 4 . Decisions of the school parliament are recommendatory in nature and students themselves choose if they should be included in the proposed initiatives.

5 . Every student has the right to propose certain initiatives or specific events, whether a member of the School Parliament or not, and seek support for the proposed ideas.

6. When a student, group of students, club or class are committed to implement an initiative- they take moral responsibility for its implementation.

7. Members of the School Parliament inspect all students with the Rules and planned work during the school year.

The main objectives of the school's student parliament

1. Active participation of students in the democratization of the education, raising its prestige through interaction with teachers, parents and school management.

2. Approval of the School Parliament as a centre of attraction for the school student community.

School management of the Student Parliament

1.SP includes two representatives from classes V to VII .

2. UP is headed by a chairman.

3. Each representative from V to VII grade may submit their candidacy for President of the SP.

4. The President of UP has the right to attend the pedagogical councils of praise and punishment on students.

5. The President of UP has the right to designate as his deputy, member of SP for the time he/she is absent from school .

Students from the School Parliament

LIBRARY -INFOCENTRE

From 9 to 11 October, 2013 in the library of the Aleko Konstantinov school were held the first of this school year extracurricular reading lessons. Second graders were introduced to life and work of the beloved of all children in the world Swedish writer Astrid Lindgren and in more detail with her eternal novel 'Pippi Long stocking'. Reading about the antics of Pippi and her friends, they had not only fun, but also realized that writing stories is not difficult and is enjoyable. Especially when you do it for the kids - their own and others.

extracurricular READING

IN THE LIBRARY

Translated by Stefka Katsarova